I stroke the greenish purple bite marks you left. I smile at the confessions we exchanged.

"I've always wanted you Lars."

"I've always wanted you too Kirk."

"We would totally make a perfect couple."

"But we shouldn't."

"Nah, we might break up with each other."

"And then we wouldn't have each other any more."

I remember how I kissed your face, your neck, your lips. Just because I wanted nothing more than to just kiss you. You felt perfect against me and I thought the moment would last forever.

And now we've sobered up we can pretend it never happened.
